

HOW YOU CAN HELP GAIN ON #GIVINGTUESDAY

1

Donate.

Make your gift at gagives.org/gaingives any time in November — there's no need to wait until the 28th!

2

Start a peer to peer page on GAGives.org.

Log in with email or Facebook to use GAIN's fundraising template—or tell your own story!

3

Email three friends and invite them to give.

Check out the copy/paste template on page two for inspiration.

4

Post an #unselfie.

Post a photo on social media with the hashtag #unselfie and share why you support GAIN on Giving Tuesday.

5

Collect toys for GAIN clients.

Email our team to learn more, or buy gifts for GAIN families from our gift wish list or our multilingual book list.

6

Volunteer.

Volunteer attorneys are a big part of GAIN's work, and non-legal volunteers can help at our annual client celebration event. Email us to learn more.

Let's celebrate generosity together! I'm writing to ask you to consider a gift to a nonprofit that is close to my heart, Georgia Asylum and Immigration Network (GAIN). GAIN's mission is to protect and empower immigrant survivors of crime and persecution, including asylum-seekers and immigrant survivors of domestic violence, human trafficking, sexual abuse, and other crimes.

GAIN serves thousands every year, but they need our help to provide free immigration legal services and holistic support to survivors. That's why I'm joining forces with them for #GivingTuesday—a global day of giving on November 28, 2023. I would be honored for you to take a moment to learn more about GAIN's mission and donate at <https://gagives.org/GAINgives>.

There's a fundamental truth that gives us hope—that together we can do extraordinary things. This #GivingTuesday, I will be supporting Georgia Asylum and Immigration Network (GAIN), a nonprofit with a mission to protect and empower immigrant survivors of crime and persecution. Join me at <https://gagives.org/Gaingives>
